

I Think I Con!

October 5 at 7 PM– October 7th at 9 at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship at Stony Brook

What is a Con?

A con is a weekend retreat for Unitarian Universalist youth grades 9th through 12th. With activities such as workshops, touch groups, worship, coffee house and more, not only are cons a fun way to meet UU youth from across the metro district but they provide an accepting community for youth to be themselves!

transportation from the Stony Brook train station is available!

what to bring:

Happy thoughts, talents for coffee house, musical instruments, deodorant, stuff to tie-dye, an open mind, and optimism!

what not to bring:

train robbers, bad vibes, drugs, alcohol, non renewable fossil fuels to power your engines, angry trains, and

To register go to metroyac.org

Cost: $27

(Scholarships are available. go to metroyac.org for more information)

T-Shirts can be purchased at the conference for $15! woot!

Taking the SATs? no problem!

Transportation available to Ward Melville High School and sleep only rooms are available! Please tell the conductors ahead of time if this applies to you Questions?

Contact the CONDUCTORS

Katie Parker
spudnickulla@aol.com
631-873-8584
Elyn Wolfe
come2mywindowx3@optonline.net, 631-675-0376

or go to metroyac.org
for more information!

NOTE: There will be no smoking at this con! This rule will be enforced